Introduction

Hi

I thank you for downloading this report. This is probably the shortest report in this giveaway. Don't be fooled by the size of it. This is going to be a life changing report. I kept this report short deliberately so that you can read the report quickly and take action. Action that will bring instant self transformation.

People fail to appreciate the real value of things they get for free in life. I sincerely hope that you don't do that in this case. I do want to see you become the new you always wanted to be in the new year. Take advantage of my free one on one consultation offer and let me show how to succeed with your new year resolution and every other challenge in your life as long as it is a realistic one.

I don't want to hold you back with a long introduction. Just go through the report to get the details and email me to set up your FREE consultation. Do it right away, because I am expecting a big waiting list as a result of the giveaway, to avoid long delay.

Talk to you soon for an instant self transformation experience.

Over the years, I have tried many things- Auto suggestion, visualization, hypnotic therapy, meditation. Spent hundreds of dollars on self improvement courses, seminars, CDs and books. Chased many online marketing and spiritual gurus to be blessed with that ever elusive financial and spiritual nirvana.

I am not saying that everything I tried was bad. Some of them are very good at what they wanted to accomplish. I feel that as I walked through my various stages of my life, they had some purpose and served in some manner. They alleviated some of my problems to some degree. But none of them offered me the ultimate self improvement, wealth, feeling of happiness and a life of fulfilment and peace they promised.

With all the due respect for the traditional self improvement methods mentioned above, I had difficulty building on the initial success they gave me and transform myself into a new person I wanted to be. It is not my intention to find fault with the traditional self improvement methods, I know they work because some of my friends are successful with one or the other traditional self improvement methods. The reason, these methods could not help bring about a total transformation I wanted with me, was me - the student. I was down right lazy. My old self lacked the dedication, will power, perseverance and energy (both physical and mental) to accomplish any thing meaningful and constructive.

I still meditate regularly. Meditation and self analysis play an important roll in any form of self transformation effort. But the uniqueness of instant-self-transformation system is that it enabled me to build on the initial success and transform every area (physical, mental and spiritual) that needed repair within me despite my laziness and lack of dedication, will power, perseverance and energy. From the very first consultation session the success energy that emerged from me started to build upon itself and started a chain reaction and gave me whatever it needed to accomplish the transformation. It was instant and without any major effort on my part.

What is so unique about the system? How it differs from traditional self improvement methods?

The student is the master

I attribute the number one reason for the success and effectiveness of the "Instant Self Transformation system" is the way the student is encouraged to play a leading roll in the whole process of self transformation. The teacher is there only as a guide.

The whole concept is built on the fact the student has all the knowledge and answers to eliminate and overcome all the obstacles and whatever that is holding him back from personal improvement and transformation into a person that always wanted to be. This concept empowers the student immensely, laying the foundation for a real change and transformation and assuring him that he is the master of his destiny. The teacher just helps the student rediscover his real self.

The concept of reality and belief systems.

The other uniqueness of this system is the concept of reality and its relationship to our belief systems.

We are nothing more than a bunch of belief systems competing for domination. That is our world, our reality. Which belief system of yours is dominating at this moment - positive or negative? If your positive belief system is dominant then you feel positive most of the time. Your world is a positive one and positive things happen in your life.

If your world is dominated with negative belief system, then you need to learn to identify, isolate and get rid of the negative belief system to make your world a positive one.

Armed with this knowledge that the reason for his any undesirable action, reaction and interaction with himself and others is the dominating belief system of the moment and not he, the student eliminates the undesirable belief system.

Unlike the other traditional systems, you deal with any undesirable belief system only once and the transformation is instantaneous and permanent. You don't have to be a total believer of the system. Skepticism is OK. I only ask you to be open minded and give the system the benefit of doubt. The system will prove itself whether you believe it or not.

The simplicity and the effectiveness of the program will shock you. I know it sounds too good to be true. My reaction was also like yours until I tried it. It changed my life completely that I became a consultant. It has become my passion and my life's mission.

Therefore, I am offering you the initial one on one telephone consultation free and let you decide for yourself (A value of $150). I am so confident that after the initial consultation you will see for yourself, firsthand, the benefits and the effectiveness of this program. Do yourself a favour, transform yourself instantly.
